“We have come a long way from small beginnings saving one dog at a time” says Monika, founder of DoggieRescue.com. “I never would have believed where we are today when I first started.”

Our 8,000th adoption is Crispin, a sweet little silky boy has found his forever home with a Wendy, a retired resident in Alexandria where he is being spoilt. Crispin is also providing a lot of companionship for an elderly aunt living with them.

“Dogs have so much to give to the elderly or the isolated and their love is unconditional. A good walk, a warm meal and lots of love is all they ask.”

Crispin is a little 5 year old silky boy who was saved from a kill pound. He is such a cute easy boy, it is hard to imagine why someone would let him go. Someone's loss has been Wendy's gain.

Whilst this is a happy occasion and we are proud to have saved so many who would otherwise be put to sleep in the council pounds, the dumping of unwanted dogs is endless.

“We need to stop the breeding of so many puppies. If we stop the breeding we stop the killing.”

DoggieRescue.com is a volunteer organisation that saves 1,000 dogs each year. It relies on the generosity of dog lovers to keep its doors open. Help DoggieRescue save more. Call Doggie Rescue on (02) 9486 3133 or visit www.DoggieRescue.com. A dog is for life.
