

Something called “unconditional love”

All I want is a room somewhere, far away from the cold night air...

Media Release
2 October 2008

Older dogs were once young pups in high demand. Buy me buy me! Now we have aching joints and are tipped out in the pound, unwanted and unloved. There is a remarkable parallel between humans and dogs.

What hope have I now of finding someone who loves me? I am missing some teeth because I was fed on mush food. I have bald patches from scratching at all the fleas and my ribs are showing because my master forgot to feed me. Yet despite my looks I have something to offer. Something called unconditional love. Humans say it is special.

I will always wag my tail when you come home and I will never be cross if you yell at me. I will always understand. All I ask is somewhere warm and safe to lie and a good meal each night. Can you look into my eyes and see my sadness?

DoggieRescue saves dogs like Gobbleduck (10 year old Silky X) each day. They get all the veterinary attention they need after years of neglect. DoggieRescue saves around 1,000 dogs each year from death row.

Can you help with another? Call DoggieRescue.com today on 9486 3133 or visit www.DoggieRescue.com and help save a life.

Call Doggie Rescue on (02) 9486 3133 or visit www.DoggieRescue.com

-ENDS-

For more information please contact
Doggie Rescue founder - Monika Biernacki - 0429 044 484