City Lights lift the hearts of DoggieRescue.com doggies

DoggieRescue.com is deeply honoured to be the Charity Partner with City of Sydney this year and share in those Christmas events on a personal level. At this time of year DoggieRescue.com is flooded with unwanted dogs left at the pounds in the lead up to the holiday period. "As we share the spirit of Christmas, spare a thought for the abandoned dogs that may not see Christmas – unless we help them," says Monika, Founder of DoggieRescue.com.

"We are appealing to the compassionate nature of the people of Sydney to help us save more lives this year and help stem the wave of dumping that occurs before Christmas each year" says Monika. "We want to see a better outcome for the animals. Christmas is a time of life and rejoicing – let's show some kindness and care to all those pound puppies with no future."

"With help from the City of Sydney we want to find forever homes for 90 homeless doggies – we have a little over 4 weeks to do it. Visit us at all the City's Christmas concerts. Check out our web site www.DoggieRescue.com and see the many faces that are pleading for loving homes."

Lord Mayor of Sydney Clover Moore MP urged anyone considering getting a pet to go to Doggie Rescue.

"Pets bring great joy to our lives as companions, teach responsibility and break down barriers in the community," Ms Moore said.

"I encourage anyone able to give a pet a loving home to consider a lost or abandoned puppy from Doggie Rescue."

Doggies like Bonnie are patiently waiting for their forever home. Make her little tail wag and show you care. Come and help us, foster, adopt, sponsor or support some of our faithful friends and together we can make a difference!

DoggieRescue.com is a No-Kill charity that is committed to undertaking an 11th hour rescue from Sydney's council pounds. We care for the abandoned, abused and neglected dogs and find them forever homes, however long it takes and we stand by our dogs for life.

To date we have rescued some 9,000 dogs and we have at present 200 dogs looking for homes. They are all featured on www.DoggieRescue.com. Come and walk and cuddle some of our doggies each Saturday at Petbarn Alexandria. You too can make this a better Christmas. Give the gift of life.
